TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 7.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION .- As stated in 3 esterday's GAZETTE, Count de Montebello and M. Nelidoff, the French and Russian ambassadors respectively, have lodged objections of their governments to the ratification by Turkey of the Anglo-Turkish convention relative to Egypt. M. Nelidoff, in communicating his government's objections, hinted that if the Sultan ratified the convention of the Sultan ratification of th vention, such action might cost him his throne. He also indirectly charged Eng-land with bribing the Grand Vizier with and with briding the Grand Vizier with £600,000, and other palace officials with large amounts, in order to secure their approval of the convention. The sultan, after his interview with M. Nelidoff, hurriedly summoned Sir Henry Drummond Wolff, the special British anyon, with reference to special British envoy, with reference to Egypt, and questioned him as to the truth of these charges. Sir Henry indignantly denied that he or his government had been guilty of bribery. The Turkish officials who were said to have received the bribes also warmly protested their innocence of the charges. the charges.

FRICASSEED MAN .- Although cannibalism ls reported by missionaries to have died out among the islands of the South Seas, it is far more common than generally imagined. In New Ireland I saw a big fight between two villages, and after the battle the bodies of those who had fallen were eaten. The bodies, after being scalded in hot water, are scraped with a bamboo knife by old women. An old man cuts up the bodies, taking care to keep the thighs and shin bones, which are used for spear heads. After being wrapped in stout leaves the dismembered cadavers are placed in ovens dug in the ground and in four days are ready for eating. The natives made no concealment of their disgusting meal, and during the feast they held wild dancing and orgies. The preparation of eago, cocoanut and human brains is called saksak, and is in great de mand among the women. The females seemed to be more brutal and savage than the men during this cannibal banquet. - San Francisco Chronicle.

Mexandria Gazette.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the old est in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. I its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chroni cling of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable

The GAZETTE has better facilities for our taining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dipatches from every part of the world hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve and fifteen hours earlier than the morning pa

Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with mer chants is its afternoon market raports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and othe:

The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs n and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention.

Correspondence from Washington, Rich mond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE.

The GAZETTE'S circulation is steadily to creasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchas ing. That this is self-evident may be infer red from the fact that a large country edition-nearly as large as the daily-is sent a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, ap-
